Honouring Waldorf 100 – New mural by David Newbatt

It was such a pleasure to have artist David Newbatt visit our school this week, working on a new mural for the school and running workshops with pupils, parents, teachers and friends of the school. His painting celebrates the international nature of Steiner Waldorf education and encapsulates the journey, both of the movement, but also of our own school, and for each of us individually.

Dates for the Diary

Thursday 14 October – KG Harvest Festivals

Friday 15 October – Harvest of Work 2-3pm

Monday 18 – Friday 29 October – HALF TERM

Saturday 27 November – Advent Fair

Monday 29 November – INSET – no school

Term Dates for 2021-2022 *please note – INSET 1 November, school resumes for all on 2 November

Advent Fair

Thank you to those who joined the planning meeting this week (and apologies to those who struggled to join remotely). Things are beginning to take shape, but we will need all hands-on deck to bring it all to life. More details to follow about how everyone can get involved. Main contact:

Chess club

Thank you to those who have expressed an interest in joining chess club. It is looking likely that the group will go ahead, we will be in touch shortly with booking information. It's not too late to express an interest: the sessions would run until 4:15pm on Mondays and would be open for children from Class 3 upwards. Cost: £10/week, with half termly commitment. If you are interested in your child attending, please click HERE. Thank you.

Reminder: Craft Club with Yule

It's not too late for your child(ren) to join Yule's craft club, running on Wednesdays leading up to the Advent Fair (3-5pm, 13 October and 3, 10, 17, 24 November) for children aged 7 upwards. The children will have fun exploring various crafts with the aim of making beautiful items to sell at the Fair to raise money for our school.

Cost: £80 for the block of sessions, £60 for siblings. Please contact yule.edwards@cambridge-steiner-school.co.uk to sign up.
